FEBRUARY SAN DIEGO CHAPTER MONTHLY NEWSLETTER 2014

President's Message

Hello fellow IPSSA members! We have an informative general membership meeting coming up this month on February 19. As a reminder, blue cards will be due no later than the general meeting. We will be hearing from our newly approved chapter supporters "One Roof Energy". They will share about what services they offer, and the technology they use.

The board and I found the IPSSA Leadership weekend very informative and beneficial to our chapter. Items discussed included water safety, insurance claims, and how to smoothly operate an IPSSA chapter that benefits it's members, and adds value to their businesses. After spending the day attending seminars, a few of our board members enjoyed networking at the banquet. The evening ended with a raffle and our very own George Ludwig (Secretary) walked away with the grand prize!

Swim season is approaching, which means we will all be getting busier. Let's be sure to not overlook the safety of our clients. Be attentive to each pool's potential hazards and try creating a basic checklist for each pool to ensure the safety of all swimmers. Going the extra mile reinforces your value to your clients and most importantly, it could be what prevents a drowning accident from occurring. Stay safe!

Sincerely,

Austin Gardiner
President

The membership unanimously passed a motion to reimburse the chapter officers for attending the annual Leadership conference. A conversation ensued about all members being able to attend and be reimbursed. A new motion was made by Jon McArthur and seconded by Bill Peck, it reads as follows.

All members are encouraged to attend the annual IPSSA Leadership Conference. In election years, it is mandatory for the newly elected President and Treasurer to participate. The cost for the seminars and banquet are paid for by the Chapter. All attending members, who attend both the seminar and banquet, are also eligible to be reimbursed for a one night stay at the event site. (Equal to the price of an IPSSA group rate room). A member can recoup this expense by submitting a reimbursement form, with receipt to the Treasurer. Monies will be drawn from the general fund as long as there is sufficient money to do so.

The motion was unanimously passed.

President Austin Gardiner thanked everybody for their attendance and adjourned the meeting.

Product Testing Report
Pat Farrior

Product Name:

Spec Pool Pump Model Econ3, and Marathon Pool Pump Motor

Product Description:

Spec Pump(s) and other low cost pump options.

Spec pumps are now offering a 1 HP multi speed, magnet motor pump, for $550. This pump is also included in the SDGE $200 pool pump rebate to the customer.

As we all know Pentair –Hayward, Jandy & Sta Rite all provide some powerful and expensive 2.5, and 3HP magnet motor pumps, but they are somewhat expensive. ($950-$1,150)

Most residential pools will never use or need 3HP, and if the plumbing is old, with 1 1/2 " plumbing coming out of the ground, then even 3/4 HP is too much.

So there is really a niche for this pump. For more info about spec pumps Travis Schonleber, Carlsbad, CA; (808-383-8973).

Also, there is a very easy to use, permanent magnet motor available as a motor replacement or upgrade. It comes in the most standard square Flange threaded configuration. The replacement motor is variable speed, very easy to use, and available in a 1HP or 3HP unit. (Marathon Motors - $450 per 1HP unit)

As you know some customers simply cant afford the expensive new P.M. variable speed pumps and perhaps they are stuck with a 1 1/2" pipe diameter but they need a new pump. Well, the Hayward Max Flo XL, water way "S, M, F", Pentair Super Flow and spec – E71 all offer 3/4 1 speed pump in the $250 price range. These are medium head pumps.

The bottom line is the bottom line! With a good permanent magnet variable speed pump available for $550 (don't forget the $200 rebate), or a single speed pump, 3/4 or less for approximately $250. You may be able to close more sales and still make some money! Don't forget! The pump is only one part of pool circulation efficiency. Plumbing, pipe diameter, filter flow efficiency, solar heating panels, gas heaters, pool sweeps, etcetera, all play a part of circulation efficiency.

Fact: Sweep 90's cause 1/2 the drag of a regular 90.

Fact: a pool pump inlet port of 2" diameter requires 8" (4 times the diameter) of straight height for good inlet flow.

Last, but by not least, there is another new pump available in February. This pump is a standard looking pool pump, except that it runs on pure solar energy. Their solar photo voltaic panels – approximately 900 watts total, directly power this pump. No controllers, no inverters, no exotic controls that require a day in "school" to learn how to operate it. Just an on/off switch. When the sun is up it works, when the sun goes down, it shuts off.

The solar pump shares most of the same plumbing used by the "line" pump, which we leave in place, for nighttime use or extended rainy weather.

The system works completely independent of the grid or any existing or future solar voltaic system – most solar voltaic systems Do Not operate when the grid is down. Talk to John Baldwin (858-354-7946) about $250 finders fee. Pricing to be released soon.

Note: Salt-water pools and all spas are tough on seals!
"Aladdin" is now selling a better seal assembly, through SCP, Superior and, Action Spas (619-284-6300).
