Votes for BK Taylor, David Courey Awards and Board Nominations Elections

Come Prepared to Update your Personal/Company Information, a new Photo and Cash for our "Pass the Hat" to Prevent Drowning – Doors Open 6:00pm

President's Message

I look forward to seeing everyone at our next meeting. The mandatory October general meeting is the one time each year when we are required to all come together. It will be a very full night, so we would appreciate the chance to start on time. The Board and I have a lot to share with you. Please arrive as early as possible. Doors will be open at 6pm.

When you arrive we will have a photographer on hand to take photos for our new paper directory and website for the years 2018-2019. So if you are a new member, a new chapter supporter or would like to update your photo, please come early so we can keep things rolling. Sign in will include verifying your info for the directory, and you will receive a ballot for our elections.

Included on the ballot will be outstanding nominees and space for write in candidates for the new chapter Board 2018-19, B. K. Taylor Award nominee for outstanding chapter member, and David Courey Award nominations for the best Chapter Support. We will introduce our newest chapter supporters and hear from each of our chapter supporters that are present at the meeting. We will hear from each of the committee chairs including all the information needed regarding our end of year event Christmas party.

Finally, we will continue our never ending campaign for water safety with a presentation in support of our community contribution. It is our privilege to announce the City Heights Swim Center as this year's organization to make our charity contribution to provide funding for providing swim lessons to those less fortunate who do not know the basic life saving skills to swim and cannot afford swim lessons. A representative from the swim center will share how we as a chapter have already made a big impact in the community and how we can continue to make a difference with our charitable donations. So come prepared to give a year ending donation to this valuable organization that will be matched by the Chapter, and Table Top.

I look forward to seeing you there!

Michael Harris

Water Issues Continue to Threaten Future of Pool Industry in California

Just recently, a bill was introduced in California to ban the internal combustion engine in automobiles and trucks by 2030. California is already committed to requiring energy companies to provide 50% clean energy or alternative energy by 2030. Diesel truck owners have had to purchase new clean running trucks to operate in California, and new Cap & Trade legislation will require another similar investment again over the next few years. Climate change and clean air is the justification; the swimming pool and spa industry should pay attention to what these industries have experienced over the last several years as now similar proposals are aimed at water use.

Using California's historic drought as justification, the Governor and various state agencies are in the process of cracking down on water consumption by all users, but particularly residential consumption. Limits on water use for landscaping have already been enacted utilizing the Governor's urgency regulatory powers, and these new limitations have been made part of the California building codes. There are currently ongoing stakeholder discussions on how to implement these new regulations.

In addition, the Governor's Water Plan, "Making Water Conservation A Way of Life," proposes to limit future water use by creating water quotas for both inside and outdoor water use by renters and homeowners. These new water quotas would be enforced by the State Water Board on local water districts and water purveyors by use of both enacting financial penalties and issuing cease and desist orders.

There is now a big question for the California swimming pool and spa industry – will there be enough water allowed in these new regulations and water quotas to allow for homeowner to install and maintain the California Dream of a backyard with a pool?

Since before the drought was officially declared over in California earlier this year, I have written several articles about Urban Water Management Plans, the Model Water Efficient Landscape Ordinance, and the Governor's New Water Plan. I find it interesting that no one in the industry has indicated any alarm or sustained interest in what is being done to ensure the swimming pool and spa industry has a future in the world's largest market. It seems that the industry just wants to bury its head in the sand and figure everything will all be alright in a few years. Quite frankly, that's that attitude that brought the entire industry very close to shutting down during the recent drought.

For more than a decade after the last great California drought from 1987-1992, the pool and spa industry ignored what was happening in the water arena. The result was that almost every urban water supplier's drought contingency plan had provisions built into them to limit the use of water for swimming pools and spas during drought conditions. These limitation had no basis in fact or science but that did not really matter. The point is that the swimming pool industry was nowhere to be seen to point out these facts. CPSA was extremely fortunate – in 2014-2016 to be able to respond across the state with a strong lobbying and public relations effort to these local pool and spa water use limitations and in most cases got them set aside. But it's just not smart to make the same mistake twice.

So, despite the fact that there does not seem to be any real alarm or immediate concern in the industry, CPSA is and has been actively working to ensure these new laws and regulations allow for the maintenance and constructions of swimming pool and spas in California. We were the only association to oppose and file comments against the Governor's urgency regulations making amendments to and adopting the Model Water Efficient Landscape Ordinance (MWELo) as a part of the California Building Codes. Despite a very limited budget, CPSA has hired expert water consultants to assist our efforts in stakeholder hearings on how to adopt MWELo into practice going forward by building officials. CPSA has also retained legal experts to research the legislative history of bills enacting MWELo and to determine if including swimming pools and spas within MWELo was actually authorized by the implementing legislation. The information we expect to gain from these experts will determine what options the industry has at its disposal to fight against regulations which will be of detriment to future pool building in California.

CPSA engaged on two bills this session that would have provided the legislative authorization to enact the Governor's Water Plan. Both of these bills were stalled late in the legislative session but will be vigorously pushed by the Administration again next session. This month CPSA will be meeting with the state's top officials at the Department of Water Resources to discuss topics of concern to the industry regarding both the ongoing stakeholder meetings and the Governor's Water Plan. The response we receive will set the stage for developing a plan for the industry to ensure that building swimming pools and spas will have a real future in a California where homeowners have to abide by strict water use limits.

It is expected that 2018 will see the final legislation enacted providing the Governor the authorization for implementing the New Water Plan legislation. Regulations are expected to be complete by 2020. Stay tuned...

CPSA, the California Pool and Spa Association, serves as the statewide public policy representative for the pool, spa, and hot tub industry. We advocate on behalf of industry interests before the California Legislature and state and local regulatory agencies, and for individual members dealing with enforcement issues. Working daily on the industry's behalf, we have an unmatched track record in successfully negotiating and fighting against unreasonable and costly legislation and for enforcement of unlicensed contractor laws. CPSA promotes the highest standards of professional conduct in pool construction, service, and repair, and seeks to educate the public on the proper maintenance and safe use of swimming pools, spas, and hot tubs. For nearly 40 years, CPSA has been the only organization registered to lobby at the State Capitol on behalf of the pool, spa, and hot tub industry. CPSA is funded by membership dues and donations. For more information on CPSA and legislation we are watching, call 916-447-4113.
